PLEASE WRITE AS MUCH AS YOU FEEL NECESSARY TO ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS

Are you a creative person? In what ways does your home limit your creativity or your hobbies?

Do you like the present color palette in your home? Does it need updating?

Are there any rooms that feel cramped or stuffy? Any rooms that feel empty, cold or unwelcoming?

Décor wise what is your favorite room in your home?

Do you like the current lay-out of your home? If not, what would you change?

As you walk through your rooms, jot down your favorite qualities about each. Do you like the proportions? Is there adequate ventilation and lighting throughout your house?

Are there any rooms that you don't use regularly? Could any of these rooms be used for more than one function? Could any of these rooms be used for a completely different function?

Does your home balance open space and private areas?

Does the entryway do its job of setting the stage for the rest of your home by welcoming guests and making a statement about the people who live there? If you normally come into your home through the garage, does that area welcome you?

Is adequate, well-organized storage a problem? Can you find things when you need them?

Are your bathrooms and kitchen functional, pleasing spaces? Do you or family members have special needs (e.g. grab bars, easy-entrance shower stalls, etc.)?

Are you happy with the current amount of both natural light and interior lighting?

Are there particular rooms that need attention? If so, please list them in order of priority.

LIFESTYLE

Do you entertain, if so, is it casual, formal or both?

Do you have adequate seating in the living and dining rooms for your guests?

How many people do you plan to accommodate?

Is there a family gathering place? Does this area need improvement?

If so, what would you like to improve or change about this space?

Do people do work, watch television or use the computer in the area that also serves as a gathering place?

What assigned areas are devoted to specific activities?

Would you like a home office/work area?

What type of work will you be doing?

What hobbies do you enjoy? Would you like a specific area for your hobbies?
